

SST Secondary Priorities

For Purposes of evaluating secondary transportation priorities for SST, contracts will have priority through internal constraints located between the primary delivery point(s) and the indicated compressor station within the same boundary.

